

Mental Health Month Supporters

Genevieve Jacobs

Genevieve has been a long-standing supporter of Mental Health Month, dedicated to sharing the stories of lived experience of mental health to help fight the stigma that too often comes with the territory. Well-known to the Canberra community, Genevieve has been in the media for 30 years, and dedicates herself to advocating for community engagement - a role that she plays with gusto through Region Media and RiotACT.